Jewish Family Service (JFS) is proud to honor two exceptional couples who provide dedicated and generous support to JFS and to our community, and inspire others by the example they set. Roz & Abner Goldstine and Susan & Jon Brandler exemplify the values of compassion and dedication to philanthropy through their deep respect and belief in the sacredness of the individual and the power of family.

SUSAN & JONATHAN BRANDLER

Anita and Stanley Hirsh Award for Outstanding Community Leadership

Susan Brandler is a devoted volunteer with JFS/Café Europa, a program for Holocaust Survivors. Susan also volunteers each week in the Edelman Children's Court House helping children as they go through the court system. Each summer, she volunteers in a Romanian orphanage with failure-to-thrive babies. Jonathan Brandler is a JFS Board member for over 30 years and past President. Jon is a partner at the law firm of Hill, Farrer & Burrill LLC where he represents employers, including many non-profit organizations, in labor and employment law, and serves as a neutral mediator in litigated cases. Jon's other community activities include past service on the boards and executive committees of the Jewish Federation of Los Angeles and Adat Ari El Synagogue. He is also on the Board of the USC Casden Institute for the Study of the Jewish Role in American Life.

ROZ & ABNER GOLDSTINE

The Spirit of Humanity Award

Roz Goldstine, is a dedicated board member and leader at JFS. The time, energy and skill that she contributes to help the agency thrive is remarkable. Abner Goldstine is a senior vice president and director of Capital Research and Management Company. Roz and Abner's recent gift, through Jewish Federation's Premiere Philanthropy program, the Abner D. & Roslyn Goldstine Fund for Holocaust Survivor Services, provides essential emergency services to survivors in the Los Angeles community as they grow older. Abner has served as president and long time board member of both Sinai Temple and Jewish Vocational Service. He is also on the boards of The Jewish Federation and the Executive Service Corp., a member of the Holy Land Project Advisory Council and Deputy Treasurer of the City of Beverly Hills. Roz is also a board member of Sinai Temple and Jewish Vocational Service, as well as a member of the International Board of Women's League for Conservative Judaism and the board of The Ziegler School of Rabbinic Studies.
