“ My keepsake is a talit that was handmade for me for my bat-mitzvah by my grandmother. She had each member of our family trace the outline of his or her hand. She then patched them together so that all of their hands would hold and support me — throughout my life and in my connection to Judaism. This ties to JFS as it reminds me of all of the helping hands, whether family or community, that serve and hold up those in need. ”

{ about JFS

In 1854, Jewish Family Service (JFS) was the first charity to be established in the city. Today, over 160 years later, we are proud to offer “a family of services” to more than 100,000 individuals every year.

Through our programs and services, we strive to meet the challenges of poverty, hunger, domestic violence, mental illness, families in crisis, disabilities, and aging with dignity. This compassion grows out of deeply rooted Jewish values – “Tikkun Olam,” or healing the world, which is a central tenet of Judaism.

JFS welcomes and serves people of all ages, ethnicities, and religions. Our professional staff and dedicated volunteers share a passionate commitment to enriching and improving the lives of every member of the community.

At JFS, we are volunteers, partners, donors and friends who all believe in one thing – we can change things – and we are going to do it as a family. This is the heart of JFS: people touching people, reaching out to nurture lives filled with dignity, meaning, and joy.

Throughout this report, we have included images of some of our most dedicated family members. We asked those we photographed to talk to us about why JFS is important to them. Some of them brought objects to be photographed that represent their personal connection to our organization. We hope you will be as inspired by their stories as we are.

JFS offers our sincere thanks to all of our most generous supporters whose names are listed in the pages of this report.

This is a list of financial donations only, made between July 1, 2014- June 30, 2015 and July 1, 2015 - June 30, 2016. Donations are listed by each fiscal year and are not combined. These listings do not include gifts to our Capital and Endowment Campaign. Every effort has been made to ensure proper recognition; we apologize for any errors.

We would also like to gratefully acknowledge the thousands of individuals who have given gifts up to $500, donors of goods and services, those who wish to remain anonymous, those who give of their time, and others who support our work whose names do not appear in this report. In addition, we would like to thank our very talented artist-friends, Adam Moran, photographer, and Jessica Accamando, graphic designer, for helping us produce this piece.

{ a message from our Board Chair and President & CEO

Jewish Family Service may have been founded in 1854, but our roots extend even further into our collective past—connecting each of us to one another and to the enduring spirit of generosity itself. Each year, these roots have offered sustenance and support to more than 100,000 Los Angeles residents. As the city's first charity, we embrace and strengthen people of every race, religion, creed, and economic status. With the help of thousands of passionate donors, volunteers and professional staff, we have dedicated our hearts and hard work to feeding families in need, providing the elderly with compassionate care to age safely in place, empowering survivors of abuse, treating mental illness, and offering focus, direction, and counseling for at-risk children and their families.

JFS remains dedicated in its commitment to providing a safety net for children and adults; serving everyone who comes through our doors with the dignity and respect they deserve. We are deeply grateful to our board members, volunteers, staff, donors, community partners and friends of JFS who enable us to make a tangible difference in people's lives each day. As a new year begins, we thank you for helping us respond to the needs of our community. With your generous support, we renew our commitment to strengthen the lives of individuals and families in need. We cannot do it without you.

If you or someone you know needs our help, please call us at (877) ASK-4JFS, or visit our website, www.jfsla.org. We've responded since 1854, and it's something we'll continue to do in the years ahead.

Debby Barak, Board Chair
Paul S. Castro, JD, President & CEO

// Family is the cornerstone of our lives.

Family gives us comfort, security, a sense of belonging and love which creates healthy and compassionate human beings who then help to build healthy communities and society. Family is also the key to Jewish life and to the sustenance of our faith and our people over time. JFS plays a key role in helping to build healthy individuals, healthy families, and a healthy society. Each generation of our large family is very proud to support JFS. "

“ The Kiddush cup I have in my hands is from my grandfather.

This keepsake is the only Jewish item passed down to me from when he escaped the ghettos in Warsaw during WWII. Like JFS, it serves as a reminder to honor my heritage, my family, my commitment to tikkun olam, and the sacrifices made that I may have the freedom and opportunities I often take for granted as an American Jew. ”

“ This book I bought in Jerusalem is very important to me, it's not only religion, it is philosophy. It is a guide through life. It shows you that life is sometimes very cruel but you can reshape yourself and get out of the troubles you are in. I have found profound help from reading the lessons in this book and have found that kind of help and support at Freda Mohr. I am very grateful for the center and from the very first time I came here, I felt at home. ”

{ Graceiella Marcovici
JFS { Freda Mohr Multipurpose Center Volunteer

“ The “keepsake” that I brought was the Dora and Charles Mesnick plaque I received in 2010 for Excellence in Senior Programming. This award is especially meaningful to me because it validates all of the work that I do on behalf of older adults in the community. Working with seniors is my passion as it exemplifies my personal ethics and values which are being kind and compassionate towards others. ”

{ Susan Mendlowitz-Belgrade, LCSW
Director of JFS { Freda Mohr Multipurpose Center

“Family is central to our lives. The “A” team are the 19 members of our immediate family.”

The menorah pictured with us was a wedding present 57 years ago from Dick’s Aunt Eve, a remarkable woman who in her time was the glue that kept the family together. Designed by Ludwig Wolpert, the menorah is the central piece in our collection of Chanukah menorahs. It reminds us of all the family gatherings with our children and grandchildren and of our commitment to the celebration of Jewish life.”

JUNE

On Wednesday, June 22, 2016 JFS was honored as a Nonprofit of the Year by Assemblymember Adrin Nazarian at a celebration of California Nonprofits Day at the State Capitol in Sacramento.

“ Since early childhood, my life has been touched by the steadfast dedication of an agency like JFS.

My mother, whose picture Ethan is holding, was widowed at 34 with two young children, my 4 yr. old sister and me of 22 months. As we were growing up, I remember my mother going ‘some place’ and coming home with food and clothing for our family. I am holding my mother’s treasured, threadbare purse, in which she always kept a nickel, stressing to us in Yiddish, that having a nickel to her name in that purse symbolized the fact that “God will never forget us”. These memories of my remarkable, heroic mother and the Jewish agency that was there for us have stayed with me all these years, enforcing my belief in, and dedication to, Jewish Family Service of Los Angeles. ”
